Narrative Statements

Narrative statements from those involved in the emergency scene provide necessary information to explain how the Girl Scout rescuer met the Lifesaving Award Criteria.

Narrative statements from the perspective of the Girl Scout rescuer, the person rescued, and up to two different witnesses are required for the Lifesaving Award application. Other supporting documents are optional.

In some circumstances, narrative statements will either not be available or not appropriate to request from the parties listed above as we recognize there may be a degree of discomfort or traumatization following the incident. If this is the case, and if possible, please provide two statements from a witness and/or responding emergency personnel (examples: 911 dispatch, police, fire, or emergency medical personnel). For the health and safety of those involved, we respect your judgement in determining what statements are appropriate to provide.

Each person writing a narrative statement should, from their own perspective, include the following information to best explain how the rescue occurred and the circumstances surrounding the rescue:

1. Writer's name and role in the rescue: Girl Scout rescuer, person rescued, witness
2. Description of place where rescue occurred and what happened that required a person(s) to be rescued
3. Description of exact nature of risk to life of person(s) rescued
4. Description of the rescuer's independent actions (Girl Scout-led) that were essential to the rescue
5. For rescuer only: What, if any, of the skills you used in the rescue did you learn in Girl Scouts? (If none, please say "none"). Note: It is not required that you applied skills learned in Girl Scouts to earn the Lifesaving Award; this is for data collection purposes only.
6. Description of extent of good judgement shown by rescuer in performing the rescue
7. Description of exact nature of risk to life of Girl Scout rescuer (if any)
8. Description of weather and its role in rescue (if appropriate)
9. Any effects of the rescue upon the rescuer
10. Any unique factors of the situation or people involved that support the bravery and heroic act of the Girl Scout rescuer
