

Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan Intro to GSSEM

Learn about Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan. The course covers GSSEM policies, practices, and procedures, including where to find necessary safety guidelines, planning parent meetings, managing troop money, meeting formats, girl behavior, how the Girl Scout program helps girls in applying the Girl Scout Promise & Law in their lives and more. You will receive materials to assist you with holding your first few troop meetings. This course is the prerequisite for the Leadership Essentials course.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: An adult who will be in charge of a group or troop of girls: Leaders/Advisors, Co-/Assistant Leaders/Advisors, Troop Committee Members.

WHEN TO ATTEND: Prior to the first troop meeting the new volunteer who is registering as the leader (position code 01) must complete this course. Other volunteers who will work directly with girls in the troop setting are strongly encouraged to take this course.

COST: $5.00 payable with registration

WHAT TO BRING: Bring Safety Wise to the training, along with pen, paper, highlighter, and a beverage if desired. A few copies of the resources will be available to share at the training. Books are not sold at training sessions.

Every troop is entitled to one free copy of the GSUSA book Safety Wise, Volunteer Essentials, and Troop Module (jump drive or print). Please obtain them from the person who recruited you, your Service Unit Team, other volunteer or your Membership Specialist (staff).
