

Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan Leadership Essentials (LE)

This three-hour class explores the new Girl Scout Leadership Experience and the Journeys for all grade levels. We give you the tools you need to successfully lead meetings and deliver the program! You will learn about the books and resources for the girls/adults, awards that can be earned, and how the Girl Scout Program Keys can keep you focused on Purposeful Leadership as your girls and you plan for the year. We use a GSUSA nationally consistent course, so the content supports volunteers working with girls.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

New Volunteers - Required for leaders/advisors who will be registered as the "01-Leader within 90 days of attending Intro to GSSEM; also highly recommended for other volunteers working with girls.

Returning Leaders/Advisors - One leader per troop is required to take Leadership Essentials before October 1, 2010. However, all volunteers are encouraged to take the Leadership Essential course.

PREREQUISITE: GSVO, Intro to GSSEM and purchase or use of one grade-level appropriate Journey Adult Guide and Girl Book for the grade level you will be working with.

COST: $5.00 payable with registration

WHAT TO BRING: Your own or troop copy of the grade-level appropriate Journey Adult Guide and Girl Book, Safety-Wise, pen, paper, highlighter pen, beverage if desired. A few copies of resources will be available to share at the training. Books are not sold at training sessions.
