1) Slide 8

How else might a trip be of value to girls?

Did you consider: learn a new skill; support something they have already learned in the troop setting, exposure to new places/ideas; fun?

2) Slide 11

What is something a girl could discover for herself indoors? Outdoors?

3) Slide 17

Review the Checklist for Travel Readiness (Safety-Wise pg 49-51) and list one item that really stands out that you did not think of previously.

4) Slide 28

Review Safety-Wise pages 52-56. What can you, as a leader, do to help create a safe travel space for the girls?

5) Slide 43

What are five considerations when planning a menu with the girls? Refer to Safety-Wise pages 38-39 and Outdoor Education in Girl Scouting pages 90-91 (the items related to indoor cooking only).

6) Slide 49

Refer to Outdoor Education in Girl Scouting, pages 32-34. What does this publication say about layering for cold weather? Which outdoor fashion activity would help the girls learn this?

7) BONUS:

Using the Girl Scout Engine in relation to the event (before, during and after), in what ways do the girls have an opportunity to:

Discover

Connect

Take Action

How are the girls using the three processes:

Girl-led

Cooperative Learning

Learn by Doing
