

Girl Scouts Go Higher

Many Girl Scouts seek higher education after high school! From community colleges to 4-year universities, Girl Scouts are going beyond the cookie!

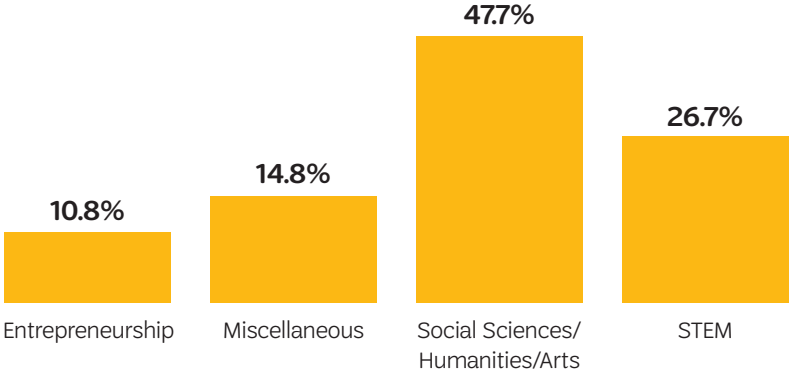

77% of public-school graduate Girl Scouts in Michigan enroll in college!

Girl Scouts are taking advantage of higher education opportunities at community colleges, trade schools and universities.

Nearly half of all GSSEM Girl Scout college graduates majored Social Sciences/Humanities/Arts while a quarter went into a STEM program.
