Senior Safety Award

Know how you and your friends can stay safe while you are a Senior Girl Scout.

1. Pick a line from the Girl Scout Law.
   a. Find a prayer, reading, or ritual of your faith that relates to it.
   b. How does this show a connection between your faith and what you have learned in Girl Scouting?

2. Find a role model on line or interview someone you know who can talk to you about how she lives her life based on a line of the Girl Scout Law.
   a. Ask her to give you examples of how she follows this in her daily life.
   b. Pick a line from part of the Girl Scout Law and for a week write in a journal how you are living that line.

3. Find three inspirational quotes by women that fit with that line of the Girl Scout Law.

4. Make something, like a drawing, painting, or a poster that reminds you of what you have learned.
   a. Once you're done share it with others and hang in your room.

5. Make a commitment to live what you have learned.
   a. You might want to create a pledge and post it where you will remember it.
   b. You might want to talk to others about your commitment and see if they will join in.
   c. Or create a bracelet with different beads representing different lines of the law. Select a special bead to use that represents the line you have selected.
