The Girl Scout Promise
On my honor, I will try:
To serve God* and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law
I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Our Mission
Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

Welcome to Girl Scouts!

Thank you for becoming a Girl Scout troop leader! We’re thrilled you joined the Girl Scout Movement.

Girl Scouts is so much more than a fun activity—it’s a movement. It’s how girls become forces for good and make a difference in their schools and communities, across the country, and around the world. And though your troop experience might look a little different this year, the fun, discovery, and power of sisterhood is the same. Girls—as well as the caring volunteers who support them—grow the values and leadership skills they need to power a lifetime of success and adventure, whatever that looks like for them.

This guide will prepare you to effectively lead during your first year as a Girl Scout troop leader. Need help along the way? Let us know! We have many tools, training resources, and people to support you through every step.

You’re now a part of our team. We can’t wait to see the impact you’ll make this year!

WELCOME TO GIRL SCOUTS OF SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN (GSSEM!)

We're so excited you've decided to join our mission of building girls of courage, confidence and character! Girl Scouts is safe space for girls to discover their interests, learn new skills, and make lasting relationships. We're committed to helping every girls discover her true self and passion within, through meaningful experiences and guidance from mentors just like you.

This guide will serve as your “go-to,” as it's packed full of resources, tips, and Girl Scout information that will make this process as seamless as possible. Your new troop will get off to a great start and continue to be successful for years to come. Included is step by step information on everything from completing new leader training, having awesome product sales, and using the online Volunteer Toolkit (VTK), which helps with meeting planning, managing troop finances, and much more! You’ll also find contact information for all GSSEM staff who can assist with every aspect of leading your new troop.

I think I speak for everyone when I say there would be no Girl Scouts without leaders like you. Your time and dedication to girls and the Girl Scout program will speak for itself. Welcome to your new role as friend, mentor, counselor, advisor, and troop leader.

To an amazing Girl Scout year!

Monica Woodson
CEO
You—A Girl Scout Leader!

Your Role

Being a Girl Scout troop leader is an incredible journey for you and your girls. And together you’ll shape the future through all you do today! Along the way, you’ll hone your own leadership style and discover that you’ll achieve more than you thought possible.

In Girl Scouting, leadership isn’t about being in charge or having a title; it’s recognizing that you’re part of a team and understanding that team’s needs and interests.

Leadership is teaching girls:

• That they can do and be anything!
• That they are decision-makers who should own their decisions
• How to live the Girl Scout Law by modeling it for them

As a leader, see yourself as a coach who:

• Advises and cheers on your troop, not as a teacher with a planned lesson or activity
• Ensures each girl can carry out her responsibilities within the troop
• Encourages girls to build their skills and their ethics
• Gives more responsibility to the girls as they grow and develop

It’s important to remember that:

• You can’t expect to know everything the girls might want to learn
• You’ll explore and learn alongside your girls and grow your confidence in the process
• You’re not expected to know everything about Girl Scouting, but you should know where to go for information—and to ask for help when you need it
Let’s Get Started!

Managing Your Member Experience Online
After you have completed your volunteer registration steps, you’ll receive an email prompting you to log into MyGS, your Girl Scout member community. MyGS allows you to manage your member experience online. You can also access MyGS via the Girl Scouts of Southeastern Michigan website.

On the Troop tab in MyGS, you can see any girls and adults who have signed up for your troop and add new girls to your troop—and the Troop Opportunity Catalog allows you as the troop leader to display available openings in your troop for girls and/or volunteers. You can add your troop to the opportunity catalog by visiting gssem.org/troopupdate and completing the online form.

Next Steps
Look out for a welcome email with details on any required trainings and how to connect with your service unit and council.

Troop Leader Learning Path
When you’re set up for success, you’ll be empowered to set up your troop for success! To help you become the best leader you can be, we offer in-person workshops, online training courses, and other great resources.

Get started by visiting gsLearn to complete the Successful Leader Learning Series modules 1-3 and GSSEM Foundations. These introductory trainings cover everything you need to know to get your troop started. All modules are available online. GSSEM Foundations is also offered via webinar and in-person (if local guidelines allow). Log into My GS to access gsLearn. For assistance with registering for any of these trainings, please contact Customer Care at customercare@gssem.org.

Once your troop has hosted its troop organization meeting, you will receive a call from your Troop Support Specialist. Your Troop Support Specialist will contact the primary troop leader to either schedule your first troop meeting with girls or confirm the meeting date. If you have not completed training, your Troop Support Specialist will remind you at this time. The Troop Support Specialist will attend your first meeting with girls, whether it is virtual or in-person (if local guidelines allow) to provide hands-on support. Prior to the meeting, your Troop Support Specialist will share resources with you including suggested agendas and information regarding the Volunteer Toolkit.

Please be sure to complete the Successful Leader Learning Series modules and GSSEM Foundations training prior to your first meeting with girls. You may also explore GSSEM’s other training offerings in the gsLearn content library.
Volunteer Resources

The Volunteer Toolkit
This fully customizable digital planning tool provides you with Girl Scout program content, award requirements, and other resources, so that you can keep your Girl Scout year running smoothly. Accessible from any computer, tablet, or mobile device, the Volunteer Toolkit lets troop leaders:

- Explore meeting topics and program activities with their girls
- Print step-by-step activity guides and shopping lists
- Manage girl attendance and track achievements
- Add local events
- Track and share financial information
- Message and share meeting activities with troop families

Plus so much more! Learn more and access the Volunteer Toolkit by logging into myGS. You can also check GSSEM’s virtual offerings at gssem.org/virtual.

Successful Leader Learning Series
Confident leaders are prepared leaders, and this online learning series provides all the info you need to get started as a troop leader. Once you have completed The Successful Leader Learning Series and GSSEM Foundations, be sure to check out the other trainings that have been assigned to you in the First Year Leader learning path. Check your dashboard to access trainings on co-leadership, the Volunteer Toolkit, the My GS member profile, and more! gssem.org/gsLearn.

Girl’s Guide to Girl Scouting
What does it mean to be a go-getting Girl Scout? These grade level–specific binders will help you break it down for your girls. It’s part handbook, part badge book, and 100% fun!

Girl Scouts at Home
Meeting virtually? Girl Scouts at Home is where you’ll find family friendly activities, virtual meeting resources, and a virtual events calendar with engaging sessions everyone can do from home! Find it at girlscouts.org/athome.

Safety Activity Checkpoints
This guide has everything you need to prepare for and keep your girls safe during a range of activities outside the normal Girl Scout troop meeting. It can be found in the gssem.org/safety.

Volunteer Essentials
With key information, policies, and procedures that support the safe and consistent delivery of Girl Scout programming to girls across the council, Volunteer Essentials is just that—essential. By agreeing to be a Girl Scout volunteer, you agree to follow the guidance outlined in this resource. Volunteer Essentials is updated annually, and the latest version can always be found on our website, gssem.org/ve.

Tips for Troop Leaders
When you’re looking for real-world advice from fellow troop leaders who’ve been there, this volunteer-to-volunteer resource on the Girl Scouts of the USA website has the tips you need for a successful troop year. Find it at girlscouts.org/tipsfortroopleaders.
The Girl Scout Leadership Experience

What makes Girl Scouts truly unique? Everything is designed especially for, and is tested by, girls! Our program centers on our research-backed Girl Scout Leadership Experience—that is, what girls do and how they do it. Activities are girl-led, which gives girls opportunities to explore leadership roles and to learn by doing in a cooperative-learning environment.

At Girl Scouts, girls will:

Discover: Every activity girls tackle through Girl Scouts helps them discover who they are, what excites them, and what their talents are.

Connect: Girls collaborate with and learn from other people as they expand their horizons. This helps them care about and inspire others.

Take action: As girls deepen their relationship with the world around them, they become eager to take action to make the world a better place.

So what does this mean for your troop? Through Girl Scouting, your girls will develop a strong sense of self, demonstrate positive values, seek challenges, solve significant problems in the community, and establish healthy relationships. These aren’t just good qualities—they’re leadership skills that will last a lifetime!

What Girl Scouts Do

No matter what excites your girls, they’ll find engaging and fun activities in the four areas that make up the core of the Girl Scout program:

- STEM
  - Computer science, engineering, robotics, outdoor STEM, and more

- OUTDOORS
  - Adventure and skill building, from the backyard to the backcountry, including through camping experiences for all ages

- LIFE SKILLS
  - Civic engagement, healthy living, global citizenship, communication skills—to name a few

- ENTREPRENEURSHIP
  - The Girl Scout Cookie Program—the largest girl-led entrepreneurial program in the world—teaches goal setting, decision making, money management, business ethics, and people skills

Whether they complete Girl Scout Leadership Journeys, earn badges, run their own cookie business, pack for their first hike, change the world through Take Action projects, or any combination of these activities, at Girl Scouts, every girl has countless ways to explore our four program areas and hone the skills they’ll need to power a lifetime of success—whatever that looks like for them.

Explore the many exciting possibilities with the Award and Badge Explorer at girlscouts.org/badges.
Where Girl Scouts Can Take Your Girls

As your girls progress through Girl Scouts, they’ll learn to take the reins and make their Girl Scout experiences their own—it’s what being girl-led is all about! And as a leader, you’ll encourage them to dream big and challenge themselves as they take their newfound passions to the next level.

While program elements—like outdoor expeditions and entrepreneurial ventures—align across all grade levels, Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies won’t be doing the same activities as seasoned Seniors and Ambassadors. But by building on the knowledge and skills they gain year after year, your girls’ confidence will grow exponentially and they’ll be eager to take those next steps.

So what can you expect as they grow through each level of Girl Scouting?

Girl Scout Daisies sparkle with that first-time newness in everything they do. They go on trips, learn about nature and science, and explore the arts and their communities—and so much more. Daisies can also earn learning petals.

Girl Scout Brownies work together as they earn badges and explore their communities. Friendship, fun, and age-appropriate activities begin at the Girl Scout Brownie meeting and move out to the community and the wider world. While earning badges, Brownies build skills, learn hobbies, and have fun!

Girl Scout Juniors are big-idea thinkers. They’re explorers at camp and product designers when they earn their Innovation and Storytelling badges, or even their Bronze Award. Every day, they wake up ready to play a new role.

Girl Scout Cadettes chart their own courses and let their curiosity and imagination lead the way. They learn about the power of being a good friend, gain confidence by mentoring younger girls, and can earn their Silver Award.

Girl Scout Seniors are ready to take the world by storm, and Girl Scouts gives them countless ways to do it. Their experiences shape their world, while giving them a safe space to be themselves and explore their interests. Seniors can earn the prestigious Gold Award.

Girl Scout Ambassadors know that small acts produce big change. While they get ready for life beyond high school, Girl Scouts helps them take flight. They can also earn their Gold Award and drive lasting impact in their communities.

Throughout their time as Girl Scouts, girls grow into forces for good who transform the world through the Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards. By earning these awards, your girls will tackle issues close to their hearts and make a real difference—and the Gold Award qualifies them for exclusive college scholarships and opens doors to promising career opportunities. The longer your girls are in Girl Scouts, the brighter their futures will be!
What Makes a Successful Troop Experience?

No matter where your girls live, a universal Girl Scout experience connects them to their fellow Girl Scout sisters around the country. And there are so many ways to make sure your girls get the full Girl Scout experience in a way that excites and inspires them!

You can count on Girl Scouts to provide...

- All-girl spaces
- Supportive adult mentors
- Cooperative, hands-on learning
- Tools for family involvement
- Girl-led activities
- Rigorous safety standards

Throughout the troop year, you’ll support your girls as they...

- Attend regular meetings
- Earn badges and Girl Scout awards
- Complete Take Action projects
- Participate in the Cookie and Fall Program
- Get outdoors
- Go on field trips
- Learn Girl Scout traditions
Guiding Your Troop Experience

In leading a new troop, you’ll want to guide the structure and experiences of your troop—from how and when meetings are held to how the troop communicates, and from steering girl-led activities to setting financial expectations. You’ll make these decisions collaboratively with your volunteer team or co-leader, as well as with input from the girls and their families.

Use these questions to guide your conversation with troop volunteers or co-leader before discussing the topics with families.

Meeting logistics:
- When will we meet and for how long? How frequently should we schedule troop meetings?
- Where will we meet? (Troop leader pro tip: great meeting spaces include schools, places of worship, libraries, and community centers. If working with teens, consider meeting at coffee shops, bookstores, or another place they enjoy.)
- If we meet virtually, which platform will we use? Can all girls access the necessary technology?

Your Troop:
- Will our troop consist of girls in a single grade level or facilitated as a multi-level troop with girls of many grade levels?

Your Troop Volunteer Team

You’re never alone on your troop leader journey! Set the stage for a successful troop year by tapping into the people resources already at your fingertips: families, friends, and members of the community have their own unique strengths and can provide troops with time, experience, and ideas—so get them involved from the very beginning as part of your troop volunteer team! All adult members associated with a troop should have a volunteer role.

Some members of your volunteer team might play more active roles than others—and that’s OK! One caregiver in your troop might step up as a dedicated troop treasurer, while others might volunteer to chaperone a field trip. Some roles, especially those that involve handling troop funds and supervising girls, require additional registration and approval. Be sure those volunteers get signed up before they jump into the fun! New volunteers may register at gssem.org by clicking “Volunteer Now”.

Money matters:
- Will our troop charge dues?
- How much money will we need to cover supplies and activities? What should our financial plan look like?
- Which components of the uniform—tunic, sash, vest—will troop families need to purchase? (Troop leader pro tip: get the full rundown on uniforms and insignia at girlscouts.org/uniforms.)

Troop communication:
- How often will we communicate with troop families?
- How will we keep families in the loop? The Volunteer Toolkit? Emails? Group texts?
Family Connections: The Key Ingredient to Successful Girl Scout Troops!

Girl Scouting provides the best opportunities for girls when families step up and play an active part in the troop. Without meaningful support from parents, it’s difficult for a troop to be all it can be. Plus, girls feel a special sense of pride when their families take part and show interest in the things they’re doing!

A parent/caregiver meeting should be the first meeting you hold each troop year—it sets up both new and returning troops for success! Your Recruitment Specialist will assist you with your first parents and caregivers meeting.

Why? Because it helps:

- Families understand what Girl Scouting can do for their girls
- Families and leaders identify ways they will work as a team to support the troop
- Families and leaders agree about what the troop pays for and what families pay for individually
- You fill key troop positions—you never know which parent will make an awesome assistant leader or troop cookie manager!
- Families know how the troop will communicate things like upcoming events and schedule changes
- Families learn about uniforms, books, and other important basics

Outlining clear expectations, building a team, and engaging families in the Girl Scout experience is a great way to start off on the right foot. When families are involved, leaders have support, and when the troop has a plan, girls benefit!

Check out our step-by-step guide and family meeting outline in the Volunteer Toolkit. This hour-long meeting will make all the difference in the year ahead: 100% of troops with the most satisfied parents and troop leaders report that they hold parent meetings. You’ll also want to hold an additional family meeting ahead of cookie season to introduce families to the program and how they can pitch in.

Although Girl Scout programming is always focused on the girls themselves, it’s important and helpful to open a few events to their families throughout the year. Inviting the whole crew—whether it’s through a virtual meeting where siblings and caregivers join in the fun or a bridging ceremony—helps families better understand the value of Girl Scouts and makes them more likely to invest their time and talents in the troop.

That said, there’s no need to wait for one of these special events to engage families in their Girl Scouts’ troop lives. Keep communication lines open throughout the year—whether it’s through your troop’s social media page, personal emails, or in-person chats—to keep parents in the loop on what the girls are doing and learning during each meeting, and encourage them to let their girl “be the expert” at home, by, for example, explaining or teaching a new skill she’s learned to the rest of the family.
NEW LEADER’S GUIDE TO SUCCESS

Let’s Go—Your First Troop Meeting!

Your first troop meeting is a great chance to get to know the girls and brainstorm the exciting things they want to do in the year to come. If you’re feeling a little nervous about leading troop meetings and experiences with your girls, that’s OK! Your Troop Support Specialist is available to assist you. Just remember that:

It doesn't need to be perfect. Did an activity run over time? Or maybe you had tech issues during your virtual meeting? Take a deep breath, roll with the changes, and have fun! The girls aren’t expecting perfection from you: your time, attention, and guidance are the best part of your leadership.

Learn with your girls. Keeping activities girl-led also means that at some point the girls will want to earn a badge or complete a project in a subject unfamiliar to you. But don't let that hold you back! Be open with the girls when you don't know something and become their partner in learning more. You'll show them that learning is a lifelong process and that, with an open mind, they can overcome any challenges that come their way.

Six Elements of a Great Troop Meeting

1. Ramp up. Plan activities for the girls on arrival so that they have something to do until the meeting begins. This could be as simple as providing coloring pages, journaling, or talking with one another. (5 minutes)

2. Open. Each troop decides how to open its meetings—most begin with the Girl Scout Promise and Law, a simple flag ceremony, song, game, story, or other activity designed by the girls. (5–10 minutes)

3. Conduct troop business. Collect dues and make announcements, or plan an upcoming event or trip while families are present. (5 minutes)

4. Let the fun begin. Use the meeting plans found in the Volunteer Toolkit! Activities are already designed to fit easily into this part of your meeting as you help your troop earn badges and complete Journeys. (30–45 minutes)

5. Clean up. Because Girl Scouts should always leave a place cleaner than they found it! (5 minutes)

6. Close. Just like the opening, each troop can decide how to close—with a song, game, story, or pretty much anything else! (5–10 minutes)

Meeting virtually? Check out a sample meeting agenda and other helpful resources in the “For Troop Leaders” section of Girl Scouts at Home as well as virtual-friendly activity adaptations in the Volunteer Toolkit!

First meeting checklist:

1. Cover the basics. Review the details about when and where the meeting will take place and make sure families are aware.

2. Get ready. Use the Volunteer Toolkit to verify your troop roster and email parents. This might be a great time to ask parents to provide you with any needed items, such as health history forms, uniform order forms, and troop dues.

3. Know the agenda. Refer to our “Six Elements of a Great Troop Meeting” and the Volunteer Toolkit sample meeting agenda.

4. Review and practice your agenda. You’ll feel calmer during the actual meeting and ready to make adjustments as needed.

5. Be prepared...for fun! When the girls and parents see that you’re prepared for the meeting and ready to have a great time, they’ll follow your lead!
Keeping Girls Safe

Understanding How Many Volunteers You Need
From camping weekends to cookie booths, adult volunteers must always be present to ensure their girls have fun and stay safe, no matter their grade level.

Not sure just how many adults you’ll need for your activity? The chart below breaks down the minimum number of volunteers needed to supervise a specific number of girls.

Planning Safe Activities
When preparing for any activity with girls, check Girl Scouts’ Safety Activity Checkpoints at gssem.org/safety for required guidelines on where to do the activity, how to include girls with disabilities, where to find both basic and specialized gear for the activity, and the specific steps to follow on the day of the activity. Safety Activity Checkpoints will also note if a first-aider is required.

If a safety activity checkpoint doesn’t exist for an activity you and your girls are interested in, contact your Troop Support Specialist before making any definite plans.

What to Do in an Emergency
Although we all hope the worst never happens, you should know and follow our council’s procedures for handling emergency incidents. Remember, at the scene of an incident, safety is your first priority. Provide care for the injured person and/or obtain medical assistance, then immediately report the emergency to GSSEM by calling 800-482-6734 (Monday-Friday 8:30 am-5 pm) or 800-887-9892 if the incident occurs after business hours. Please also complete a Volunteer Report of Accident or Unusual Incident found at gssem.org/accident.

Make sure a general first-aid kit is available at your meeting place and accompanies girls on any activity. You may need to provide the kit if one is not already available at your meeting location. You must always have on hand the names and telephone numbers of our council office, parents/caregivers of your girls, and emergency services such as the police, fire department, and hospital.
Funding the Fun

Your girls probably have some big ideas about what they want to do in Girl Scouts—and that’s awesome! As a troop leader, you’ll coach them as they learn to earn and manage troop funds. But where do you start? Troop activities are powered in two main ways:

Troop dues. Many troops decide to collect troop dues to help provide startup funds for troop activities and supplies. These could range from a few dollars per meeting to a lump sum for the entire school year. It’s completely up to each troop to decide what works best for them to support the activities they want to do.

Money-earning activities. The fall product and cookie programs are the primary money-earning activities for a troop—and they’re a hands-on way for girls to learn money management skills that will serve them for the rest of their lives. You’ll learn the ins-and-outs of these programs in a separate training.

We know you have more questions about troop finances, and we’ve got answers! Check out the troop finances portion of the Successful Leader Learning Series on gsLearn and in Volunteer Essentials for the details you’ll need to keep troop business running smoothly.

Organizational Structure

Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA): A national organization supporting the work of more than 100 councils across the U.S. for more than 100 years. Headquartered in New York City.

Girl Scout of Southeastern Michigan: Independent 501(c) (3) nonprofit chartered by GSUSA, operating under the direction of a local board of directors, and overseeing all service units and troops within a specific geographic area.

Communities and Service Units: Made up of volunteers who support the work of troop volunteers within a given geographic area.

Troops: Volunteer-supervised groups of girls.
